

Heritor '75

Desiderata

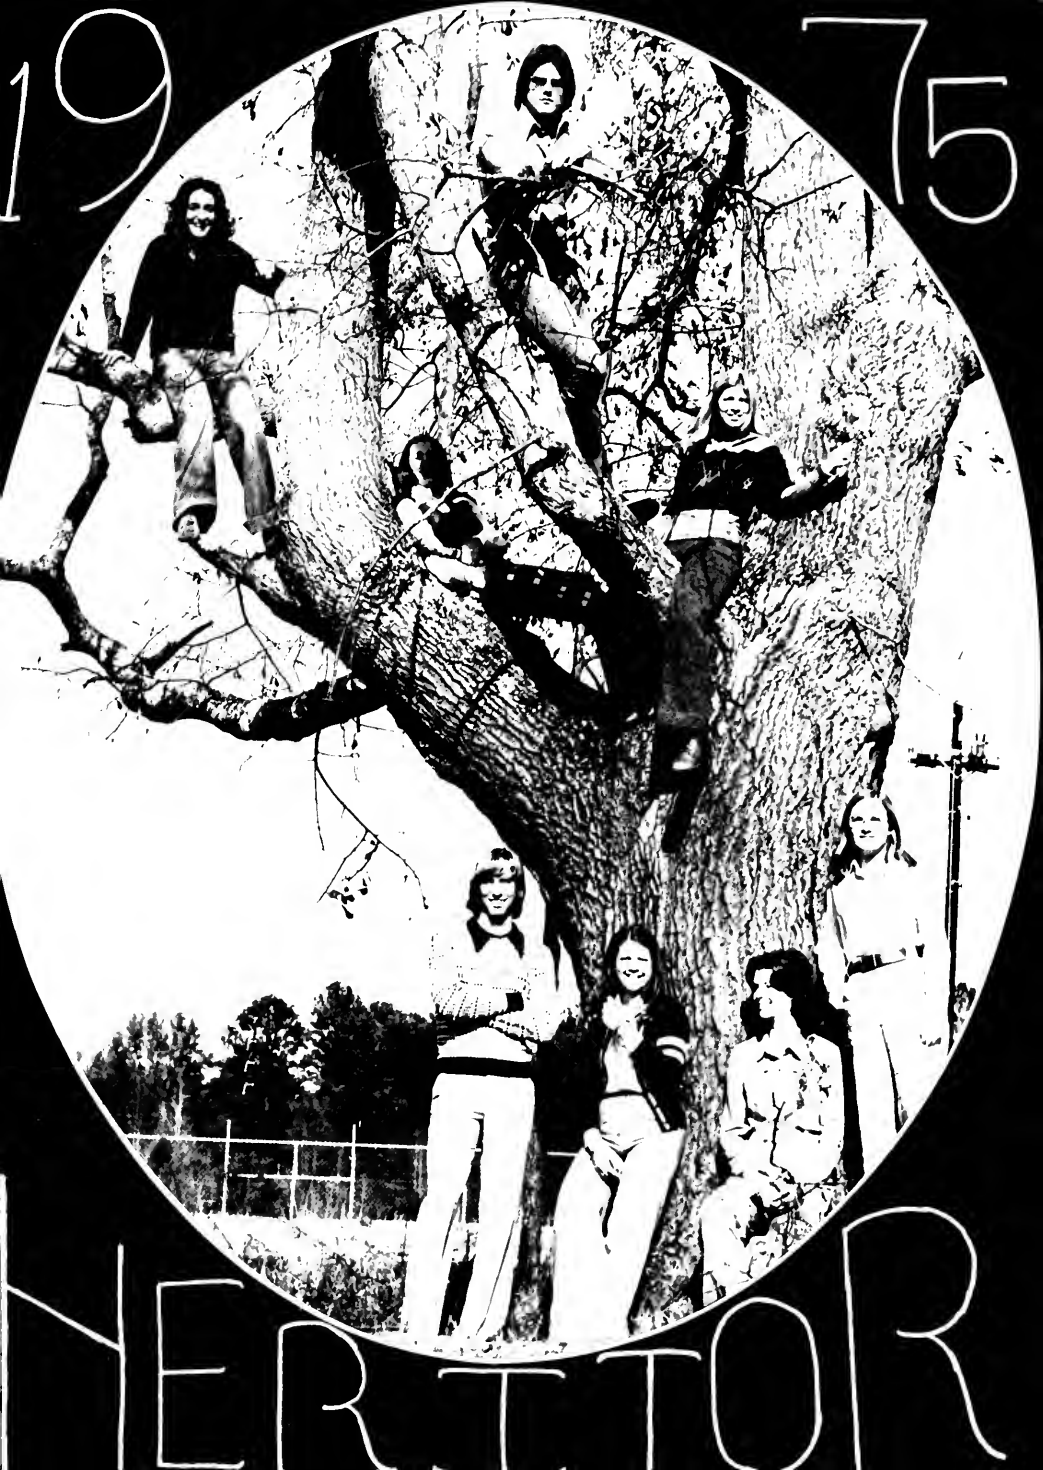

Go placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortune of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism.

Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy.

Mr. Billy Caldwell

The 1974-75 Heritor is dedicated to Mr. Billy Caldwell.

Mr. Caldwell has meant much to the students he has been able to teach. Fairness with his students has been consistent. He has always been willing to go the "second mile" with his students at any time and has proved this throughout the year.

Mr. Caldwell has done more than place facts and figures in our heads. He has taught us the importance of learning, and shown us the benefits for ourselves instead of our report cards. He has prepared us for what we will face in future years. He has passed on his excitement of learning to those who were willing to accept it. Mr. Caldwell has been a great inspiration to his students.

1974-1975 Girls' Basketball

Heritage had its very first girls' high school basketball team this year. They were coached by Marilyn Swain and had a record of 4-17. The team was composed mostly of 8th, 9th, and 10th graders, having three juniors and no seniors. From these underclassmen, Wendy Weiss, a junior, and Libba Boyd, an 8th grader, were picked to the All-Conference team. With the improvement these girls showed over the season and the experience gained, we at Heritage are looking forward to a winning season next year.

1st ROW, Left to Right: Ronnie McGee, Mark Pridmore, Randy McGee, Steve Cathey. SECOND ROW: Steve Terry, Chuck Heath, Ken Stewart, Cary Compassi, Andy Boyd. THIRD ROW: Benny Ray, Trip Carson, Steve Hardin, Robert McClanahan.

Due to a rainy spring, the Patriot baseball team had a short season. The Pats had a rather weak campaign mainly caused by a sore-armed pitching staff. Although the Patriots could score runs, they had trouble keeping the other team from scoring. The Pats were ousted in the first round of sub-district play held at Starkville.

Senior Poems

We've reached the top now, the top of that mountain we've struggled so hard to climb.

*We began at the foot of the mountain together,
But the rain and wind and sun have slowed a few,
Even stopped them.*

*With those who are left, we go on making memories on every turn,
And suddenly when the end is near, it is all a memory.*

Before there is time to rest, we see across the next valley another mountain

Yet to climb.

This mountain seems much bigger, for each must climb it alone.

The road seems much narrower for there will be no one there besides us.

The rain so longer seems tender and refreshing, for it is the many tears

We will cry in the heartaches ahead.

There are those who will remain on this mountain for a time until

The clouds clear and they see the road they must travel.

There are others who have not yet finished the climb.

But we cannot wait — we must begin again on another mountain to another goal.

Charlotte Terrell Class poet

In memory of a brave classmate

Brian McDaniel

September 9, 1957 — May 14, 1971

To one who had the courage to fight — the victory was his. Those of us who loved him will always remember him as a saint.

“See you soon I hope; All I can do is wait” (from a letter from Brian to his classmates)

“Therefore be at peace with God whatever you conceive him to be,
and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul.”

This 1974-75 school year has been joyous as well as disasterous. It is both fortunate and unfortunate that this book reflects the personal feelings of this year's staff members in many ways. This year's theme of love and peacefulness seems ironic now in a sense after all that has happened at Heritage. More than ironic, it is saddening to see that the theme reflects what should have been instead of what was.

I regret many of the things that I personally have seen and learned about life and people during this year. Heritage has revealed to me a few people who are selfish, insecure and most of all afraid to do what they know is right. The rest of the people here have proved to be loving and helpful. It is only through this kind of giving and cooperative working such as the kind that can be provided by the publication staff that can help individuals grow into responsible people.

I regret all the shortcomings that this annual has because of my mistakes, but I hope that it holds some special meaning for everyone who sees it.

Sincerely,

Cathy Hatch
